

Samantha Poirier

Samantha Poirier is the Executive Director of Plant City Photo Archives & History Center and previously served as Director at the Leavenworth County Historical Society and Carroll House Museum in Leavenworth, Kansas. She received her Bachelor of Arts in History from Missouri Western State University and Master of Arts in Public History from University of West Florida. She has also worked with the Pensacola Museum of Art and the Florida Public Archaeology Network.

Her research interests include the history of Early Modern Europe, Islamic art & architecture, and 19th century photography.